PROVO, UTAH

Preface.

THIS Volume contains the Registers of the Christenings in the parishes of St. Bene't, Paul's Wharf, in the City of London, from 1619 to 1837, and of St. Peter, Paul's Wharf, from 1607 to 1837. No earlier Registers are known to be in existence. Subsequent volumes will be published containing the Marriages and Burials in each parish. The Marriages are very numerous, especially between the years 1719 and 1754, owing perhaps to the proximity of the Faculty Office. The entries of Marriages, which relate to persons from all parts of the country, will, it is anticipated, occupy two volumes.

The Rev. George Hennessy, in his Novum Repertorium Ecclesiasticum Parochiale Londinense, says that St. Bene't Paul's Wharf was sometimes called St. Bennet Huda, or "at the Hyth," and sometimes St. Bennett Woodwharf. It is situated on the north side of Thames Street, near the west end thereof, and in the Ward of Castle Baynard. It is a Rectory in the collation of the Dean and Chapter of St. Paul's. It was destroyed in the Great Fire of 1666, and rebuilt as it now stands by Sir Christopher Wren in 1683. It was one of the nineteen City Churches condemned by the Commissioners in 1877, but it has not yet been decided to destroy it. It is now used as a Welsh Church for the Metropolis.

St. Peter, Paul's Wharf, stood at the south-east corner of St. Peter's Hill in Upper Thames Street, and in Queenhith Ward. It was sometimes called St. Peter Parva, or Little, because it was a small Church, but afterwards St. Peter, Paul's Wharf, because it was situated near that place. It is a Rectory in the collation of the Dean and Chapter of St. Paul's. The Church was destroyed in the Great Fire of 1666 and not rebuilt, the parish being annexed to the Church of St. Bene't, Paul's Wharf. The burying-ground at the bottom of St. Peter's Hill in Thames Street still remains. About 1879 both these parishes were, for ecclesiastical purposes, united with the parishes of St. Mary Mounthaw, St. Mary Somerset, St. Nicholas Olave, and St. Nicholas Cole Abbey, the last named being the present Parish Church for the six parishes.

The Register of each parish is in the custody of the Rector and Churchwardens, and is kept in iron safes at St. Nicholas Cole Abbey.

These Registers are in good condition and clear. That of St. Bene't is, generally speaking, better written than that of St. Peter, especially in the earlier volumes; the trades of many of the people are given, and there are some full affidavits of burials in wool. In the Register of St. Bene't is a page giving four names (in 1685) where "touching for the evil" is mentioned. There is also a book of Briefs (1707—1741) for collections for various purposes, chiefly losses by fire. The Register of St. Bene't contains numerous entries relating to the officers of the Heralds' College and their servants, the College being immediately adjacent to the Church.

The Register of St. Bene't, Paul's Wharf, is contained in sixteen volumes:—

Volume I. (marked A) contains Baptisms 1619 to 1730, Marriages 1619 to 1715, and Burials 1619 to 1731. It is a thick oblong folio, measuring about 15½ inches by 8 inches, and, although not stated to be so, is probably a copy of an earlier Register.

Volume II. (marked B) contains Baptisms 1730 to 1805. It is a small folio, measuring about 12¾ inches by 8 inches.

Volume III. contains Baptisms 1805 to 1812.

Volume IV. contains Baptisms 1813 to 1860.

Volumes V. to X. (marked D, E, F, G, H, and I) and Volumes XI. and XII. contain Marriages in the united parishes of St. Bene't and of St. Peter, Paul's Wharf, 1715 to 1837. Volume V. (1715 to 1728) is in the handwriting of Thomas Cooke the Rector, and each page, with a few exceptions, is signed by him.

Volumes XIII. to XV. (marked J, K, and L) and Volume XVI. contain Burials 1678 to 1853.

The Register of St. Peter, Paul's Wharf, is contained in nine volumes:—

Volume I. (marked A) contains Baptisms 1607 to 1653, Marriages 1607 to 1649, and Burials 1607 to 1653. It is a small folio, measuring about 13 inches by 9 inches. In this volume are seven small paper leaves of Marriages 1622—1625.

Volumes II. and III. (marked B) contain Baptisms 1653 to 1809, Marriages 1653 to 1684, and Burials 1653 to 1677.

Volume IV. (marked C) contains Burials 1678 to 1810.

Volume V. (marked E) contains Baptisms 1809 to 1812.

Volume VI. contains Baptisms 1813 to 1886.

Volume VII. contains Burials 1810 to 1812.

Volume VIII. contains Burials 1813 to 1849.

Volume IX. contains Marriages—three entries only—one in 1828 and two in 1834.

With the Registers at St. Nicholas Cole Abbey there is a long narrow book (16 inches by 7½), with twenty-five paper pages. Inside it has the following:—

"St. Peter.—Baptisms from 23 June 1695 to 25 July 1706.
Marriages from 24 Augt 1698 to 29 July 1704, then see St. Benet.
*want^s between 1684 & 1698.
Burials from 8 Sept. 1709 to 5 July 1733."

This is evidently the "Day Book" or rough memorandum for the Register of St. Peter during that period.

The present Rector of the united parishes, the Rev. Charles Napier Kelly, Canon of St. Paul's, has given permission to transcribe these Registers, and to him, and to the Churchwardens and Parish Clerk, the thanks of the Members of the Harleian Society are due for the facilities afforded to the transcriber and myself.

Mr. Jewers has made the transcript, using such abbreviations as are customary. He has also compiled the Index.

A list of the Rectors of the parishes of St. Bene't, Paul's Wharf, and of St. Peter, Paul's Wharf, between 1535 and 1837, compiled by the Rev. George Hennessy, is appended.

* In some interesting notes from the Vestry Minute Book of St. Bene't, Paul's Wharf, by Mr. Henry R. Plomer, recently published in the "Home Counties Magazine," it appears that in 1653 a Mr. Allen Geare was appointed Minister of the Church, but in May of the following year he had evidently ceased to officiate, and there is an entry under his hand resiguing his right to the Rectory. He was succeeded (22 December 1654) by the Rev. John Jackson, with whom there appears to have been some trouble at the Restoration, and in 1662 Mr. Jackson was suspended by the Chancellor for refusing to read the Common Prayer.

† John Lee appointed 1644-5, March 1.

End of entries in this Volume.

A large paper book ruled into spaces with printed head-line of particulars to be put in each space, and divided to contain eight entries on a page, each page and entry being numbered. There appears to have been a duplicate of pages 49 and 50, on thin parchment printed with the same forms. This Volume is a large folio of 100 pages, of which only fifty pages are written with entries, the last being 18 July 1886, the entry being No. 400 in the book. The occupations indicate the father being in a very humble position, with a few exceptions, as newspaper reporter, surgeon, corn merchant. At the back the book is marked: "S. P. 1813 to — Baptisms."
